CHRISTMAS MESSAGE TO THE NATION - December 2014

*The Most Rev'd & Dr.
The Hon. John Holder
Bishop of Barbados
Archbishop of the West Indies*

Each year we are caught up in the festivities of Christmas, and make every effort to ensure that we enjoy the day with friends and family. We hear the Christmas story again in the Gospel reading, and reflect on God's great act of salvation, the sending of his son Jesus as our Lord and Saviour.

Christmas however, is more than an account of a past event. It is a reflection on life, built around the persons in the story. We meet them in conditions that are familiar to us. There is the vulnerability of the young pregnant Mary for whom there is no room in the inn, We read of the ready acceptance of the message of the Good News by the shepherds, in what could have been for them, some contrasting trying times, and we are told about the doubts, and the later compliance of Joseph, which was an act of faith. All this speaks to the real issues of life. The plight of young Mary leads us to think of the many young, and vulnerable in our community, and in the world, for whom the circumstances of life can create some seemingly insurmountable challenges.

The message of Christmas to these young persons is one of hope. It is a message of assurance that reminds us that God can work with us and for us and empower us to deal with our challenges.

We can all be in situations in life, where the immediate answer may not be the inn, that is, what we would like, or what we think we deserve. Like Mary, we may have to settle for something less, knowing that God is with us, and so we can hope for better times. In such circumstances, we should not give up and abandon our dream for the inn, that better place, that better condition that will allow us to make far better use of our skills. As in the case of Mary, working to fulfill our dream may call for the sacrifice of a little comfort today, all because, by so doing we are laying the foundation for a better future, for a better tomorrow.

The shepherds also teach us a great lesson about life, especially about the Christian life. They stepped out in faith to meet the one, who is the hope of the world. They travelled through the dark to meet the light. They did not sit and wait to experience the promise, but travelled in search of the Good News.

There can hardly be a better lesson for us at this time here in Barbados. Like the shepherds, there are many persons who are longing for the light to point the way to better times. In this context, let us remember the message of Christmas that says to us there can be light, there can be hope. But Christmas also reminds us, that there is no magic to put all things right in a hurry. We may have to travel the road, the longer, less comfortable road which Mary and Joseph travelled in order to experience better times. On this road we may encounter Herod who is all taken up with his own security and misses out on the larger picture of the salvation of the world. We also meet Joseph with his doubts and fears who needs that special attention, that extra word to be assured that all is not lost and there can be and will be better times.

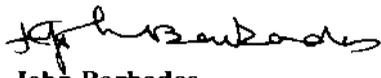

And above it all stands God, our God of hope who guides us through all the challenges of life. He can help us to be like the shepherds, who were ready to take the next step in faith leaving the darkness behind and travelling to the light.

May our God of hope grant us at this Christmas time the courage of the shepherds. May he strengthen our faith in his power and promise when we are overwhelmed with doubt like Joseph. May he fill us with the depth of the vision of Mary for whom the immediate challenge; the relegation to the stables, was seen in the light of the greater picture of God's saving grace through Jesus her son.

We proclaim at this Christmas time a God who never settles for the stables, but empowers us to move on to where we experience his goodness in greater abundance, and proclaim with the shepherds "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased!"

May God grant you a blessed Christmas and a New Year filled with hope.

Your friend and Bishop

ORDER OF SERVICE

Leader: The Lord be with you

All: And also with you

Leader: We welcome you all to this Eucharist of praise and thanksgiving as we celebrate the birth of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Let us now bow our heads and hearts before Almighty God in the words of our preparation.

Preparation: (No applause please)

Away in a manger

*Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
the little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head;
the stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
the little Lord Jesus, asleep in the hay.*

*The cattle are lowing, the baby awakes,
but little Lord Jesus, no crying he makes;*

*I love thee, Lord Jesus! Look down from the sky,
and stay by my cradle till morning is nigh.*

*Be near me, Lord Jesus, I ask thee to stay close by me for ever and love me, I pray;
bless all the dear children in thy tender care,
and fit us for heaven to live with thee there.*

Let us pray:

Collect for Purity:

Page 101

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known and from you no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your Holy Name, through Christ our Lord. Amen

Opening Prayer:

Voluntary: Choir & Altar Party Enter

Blessing of the Crib:

The President and Altar Party proceed to the Manger Scene. The figure of the Christ Child is carried by one of the children.

Blessing of the Crib

The Priest blesses the Crib with Holy Water and says:

Dear friends, we are met together to celebrate the birth of Jesus; let us pray that God will bless this Crib, a reminder of that first Christmas morning, when Christ, the Saviour of the World was born in humble circumstances. Let us pray, too, that all who worship the baby Jesus, born of the Virgin Mary, may come to share his life in glory.

The Lector says:

Hear what the prophet Isaiah says: the Lord himself will give you a sign. It is this: a young woman who is with child will soon have a son and will name him Emmanuel This name means 'God With Us'.

All: Thanks be to God.

Let us pray: (All Say)

God our Father, on this day your son Jesus Christ was born of the Virgin Mary for us and for our salvation. Bless this Crib that we have prepared to celebrate this Holy Birth. May all who see it be strengthened in faith, and receive the fullness of the life that He came to bring; for with the Father and the Holy Spirit, He is alive and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Opening Hymn:

CH 73

1. Joy to the world, The Lord is come;
let earth receive her King;
let every heart prepare him room,
and heaven and nature sing,
and heaven and nature sing,
and heaven, and heaven, and nature sing.

2. Joy to the world, the Saviour reigns;
let us our songs employ:
while fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
repeat the sounding joy,
repeat the sounding joy,
repeat, repeat, the sounding joy.
3. No more let sins and sorrows grow, nor thorns infest the ground:
he comes to make his blessings flow
far as the curse is found,
far as the curse is found,
far as, far as the curse is found.
4. He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness
and wonders of his love,
and wonders of His love,
and wonders, and wonders, of his love.

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

1st Lesson: Isaiah 62:6-7, 10-12

Miss Alyssa Harewood

Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have posted sentinels; all day and all night they shall never be silent. You who remind the LORD, take no rest,⁷ and give him no rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it renowned throughout the earth. ¹⁰ Go through, go through the gates, prepare the way for the people; build up, build up the highway, clear it of stones, lift up an ensign over the peoples. ¹¹ The LORD has proclaimed to the end of the earth: Say to daughter Zion, “See, your salvation comes; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.” ¹² They shall be called, “The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD”; and you shall be called, “Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken.”

This is the word of the Lord

ALL : Thanks be to God

Psalm: 97

Page 594 (BCP)

1. The LORD is King; let the earth rejoice; * let the multitude of the isles be glad.
2. Clouds and darkness are round about him, * righteousness and justice are the foundations of his throne.
3. A fire goes before him * and burns up his enemies on every side.
4. His lightnings light up the world; * the earth sees it and is afraid.
5. The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD, * at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
6. The heavens declare his righteousness, * and all the peoples see his glory.
7. Confounded be all who worship carved images and delight in false gods! * Bow down before him, all you gods.
8. Zion hears and is glad, and the cities of Judah rejoice, * because of your judgments, O LORD.
9. For you are the LORD, most high over all the earth; * you are exalted far above all gods.
10. The LORD loves those who hate evil; he preserves the lives of his saints and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.
11. Light has sprung up for the righteous, * and joyful gladness for those who are truehearted.
12. Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous, * and give thanks to his holy Name.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son:
and to the Holy Spirit
As it was in the beginning is now
and ever shall be, world without end....Amen

2nd Lesson: Titus 3:4-7

Ms. Lisa Gaskin

But when the goodness and loving-kindness of God our Saviour appeared, ⁵he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. ⁶This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Saviour, ⁷so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

ALL: And also with you

PRIEST: The Holy Gospel according to Luke Chapter 2, beginning to read at the 1st verse

ALL : Glory to Christ our Saviour

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. ²This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³All went to their own towns to be registered. ⁴Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. ⁵He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. ⁶While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. ⁷And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. ⁸In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: ¹¹to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is the Messiah, the Lord. ¹²This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” ¹³And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, ¹⁴“Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favours!” ¹⁵When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” ¹⁶So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. ¹⁷When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; ¹⁸and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

And I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord
There are sweet expressions on each face
And I know they feel the presence of the Lord

Without a doubt we know
That we'll have been revived
When we shall leave this place

Stay right here with us
Filling us with Your love*

The Offertory Hymn:

CH 79

1. O Christ, Redeemer of our race, thou brightness of the Father's face,
of him, and with him ever one,
ere times and seasons had begun;
2. thou that art very Light of light,
unfailing hope in sin's dark night,
hear thou the prayers thy people pray,
the wide world o'er, this blessed day.
4. Remember, Lord of life and grace, how once, to save a ruined race, thou didst our very flesh assume in Mary's undefiled womb.
5. Today, as year by year its light sheds o'er the world a radiance bright, one precious truth is echoed on,
'tis thou hast saved us, thou alone.

5. Thou from the Father's throne didst come to call his banished children home;
and heaven, and earth, and sea, and shore
his love who sent thee here adore.

6. And gladsome too are we today, whose guilt thy blood has washed away;
redeemed the new-made song we sing;
it is the birthday of our King.

by the power of your Spirit,
that they may become the Body and Blood of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who offered Himself in obedience to your will,

and when he had given thanks to you,
He broke it and gave it to his disciples and said:
"Take this and eat it:
"This is my Body which is given for you.
"Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine and when he had given thanks
He gave it to them and said:
"Drink this, all of you:

"Which is shed for you and for many
"for the forgiveness of sins.
"Do this, whenever you drink it,

"For the remembrance of me."

We do not presume to come to this your table, most merciful Father, trusting in our own righteousness, but only in your boundless mercy. We are not even worthy to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the Lord ever the same, ever merciful. Grant therefore Lord of grace and love that we may so eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ and drink his blood that with bodies and souls made clean from every stain of sin we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us.

The Administration of Communion:

During the singing of the Communion Hymns, we invite to the Lord's Table all those persons who are communicant members in this church and in their respective churches. Communion Hymn: CH 82

1. O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
the silent stars go by:
yet in thy dark streets shineth
the everlasting Light;
the hopes and fears of all the years
are met in thee tonight.
2. For Christ is born of Mary;
and, gathered all above,

while mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together
proclaim the holy birth,
and praises sing to God the King,
and peace to men on earth.

3. How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
the blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming;
but in this world of sin,
where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.
4. O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray;
cast out our sin, and enter in:
be born in us to-day.
We hear the Christmas angels
the great glad tidings tell:
O come to us, abide with us,
our Lord Emmanuel.

Communion Hymn: CH 81

1. O come, Redeemer of mankind, appear, thee with full hearts the Virgin-born we greet;
let every age with rapt amazement hear that wondrous birth which for our God is meet.
2. Not by the will of man, or mortal seed, but by the Spirit's breathed mysterious grace
the Word of God became our flesh indeed, and grew a tender plant of human race.

3. Lo! Mary's virgin womb its burthen bears;
nor less abides her virgin purity;
in the King's glory see our nature shares;
here in his temple God vouchsafes to be.
4. From His bright chamber, virtue's holy shrine,
the royal Bridegroom cometh to the day;
of twofold substance, human and divine,
as giant swift, rejoicing on his way.
5. Forth from His Father to the world he goes, back to the Father's face his way regains,
far down to souls beneath his glory shows,
again at God's right hand victorious reigns.
6. With the Eternal Father equal, thou girt with our flesh dost triumph evermore, strengthening our feeble bodies here below
with endless grace from thine own living store.
7. How doth thy lowly manger radiant shine!
On the sweet breath of night new splendor grows;
so may our spirits glow with faith Divine,
where no dark cloud of sin shall interpose.
8. All praise and glory to the Father be,
all praise and glory to his only son,
all praise and glory, Holy Ghost, to thee,
both now, and while eternal ages run.

Communion Hymn: CH 91

1. While shepherds watched their flocks by night, all seated on the ground,
the angel of the Lord came down,
and glory shone around.

2. 'Fear not,' said he (for mighty dread had seized their troubled mind);
'Glad tidings of great joy I bring to you and all mankind.
3. 'To you in David's town this day is born of David's line
a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
and this shall be the sign:
4. 'The heavenly Babe you there shall find
to human view displayed,
all meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
and in a manger laid.'
4. Thus spake the seraph; and forthwith appeared a shining throng of angels praising God, who thus addressed their joyful song:
5. 'All glory be to God on high,
and to the earth be peace;
good will henceforth from heaven to men
begin and never cease.'

During the singing of the next hymn, all children who are not confirmed are invited to the Altar for a Blessing.

Hymn for the Blessing & Recommitment:

CH 60

1. Angels, from the realms of glory, wing your flight o'er all the earth;
ye who sang creation's story,
now proclaim Messiah's birth:

Refrain (with IRIS);

*come and worship Christ the newborn King,
come and worship, worship Christ the newborn King.*

Or Gloria in excelsis Deo, Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Refrain (with REGENT SQUARE):

worship Christ, the new born King.

2. Shepherds, in the field abiding,
watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing,
yonder shines the infant Light:

Refrain

3. Sages, leave your contemplations;
brighter visions beam afar;
seek the great Desire of Nations;
ye have seen his natal star:

Refrain

4. Saints before the altar bending, watching long in hope and fear,
suddenly the Lord, descending,
in the temple shall appear.

Refrain

5. Though an infant now we view him,
he shall fill his Father's throne,
gather all the nations to him;
every knee shall then bow down:

1. Hark! The herald-angels sing
glory to the new-born King,
peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled.
Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
join the triumph of the skies;
with the angelic host proclaim,
'Christ is born in Bethlehem.'

Refrain:

*Hark! the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.*

2. Christ, by highest heaven adored,
Christ, the everlasting Lord,
late in time behold him come,
offspring of a Virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see!
Hail, the incarnate Deity!
Pleased as Man with man to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel.

*Hark! the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.*

3. Hail, the heaven-born Prince of peace!
Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!

risen with healing in his wings.
Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.

Refrain
